

DISTRICT 1 DUALS

What's that old saying...."Never tick off a sleeping Bear?" Well that's what Council Rock North must have done when they beat Boyertown by one point back on the opening day the season. Although the Indians started the semi-final round strong by taking the first three bouts, the Bears were laying in wait to seek their revenge.

Wrestling started at 285 where Jamie Callender pinned the Bear's Ryan Schwager. Sean O'Neill (103) out muscled Boyertown's Austin Mutter 18-3 for a tech fall and Jonny Dutrow (112) took a decision win over Adam Kolb. Things were looking good for the Tribe with the shutout score at 14-0. But then the Bear woke up! Boyertown strung together a string of seven wins in a row before Greg Lanctot was able to briefly slow the momentum with a 12-1 major over the now wide awake Bear's. The score? 30 them 18 us. The final three bouts went to the Bears with two pins and a forfeit. That made the final score 48-18. Boyertown carried that momentum into the finals against Council Rock South beating the Golden Hawks 38-35, to be crowned District One Champions. While North dropped to the consolation where they will meet West Chester Rustin.
